1. The Scroll of Esther is one of the Scriptures.
2. The only scripture that does not contain the name of G-d.
3. It is a narrative of Haman the Amalekite rising to power to become the Viceroy Of the Persian Empire.
4. The Amalek People, from Time immemorial, cannot tolerate the existence of a Jewish People.
5. Haman, with the consent of Achashveirosh the Persian King who ruled the word supreme, decreed to annihilate the Jewish People.
6. G-d intervened, behind the scene; the decree was annulled and Haman and his 10 sons were hanged.
7. On the 13th of the month of Adar, Jews throughout the Empire were given permission to kill their enemies.
8. They celebrated through feasting on the 14th.
9. In Shushan, capital city of the Persian Empire, they were given an additional day, the 14th to kill their enemies, and celebrated on the 15th.
10. All walled cities from the time of Joshua the son of Nun celebrate Purim on the 15th.
11. G-d said, when the Jews will go into exile, "I will conceal my countenance."
12. The miracle of Purim was a concealed one, cloaked in nature.
13. To emphasize this point, Mordechai and Esther, the authors of the Megillah, omitted the name of G-d.
